

Index

- Accidental adversaries, 176
- Actor network theory (ANT), 34–35, 38–39
- Ad hominem argument, 201
- Adaptation process, 33
- Aesthetics, 91–92
- American Philosophical Association (APA), 2, 13–14
  - Delphi report, 6
- Analysis, 55–56
- Andy Fastow’s Critical Thinking, 83–84
- Animal welfare, 29–30
  - laws, 29
- Anthropocene, 29
- Archetypes of systems thinking, 167–185
  - accidental adversaries, 176
  - balancing process with delay, 179–181
  - beware of symptomatic solution, 170–172
  - eroding goals, 184–185
  - escalation, 182–184
  - fixes, 172–174
  - growth and underinvestment, 181–182
  - limits to growth, 168–170
  - shifting burden, 170–172
  - success, 177–179
  - tragedy of commons, 174–176
- Argyris, Chris on problems
  - organizational learning, 87–88
- Arthur Anderson (company), 3
- Artificial Intelligence, 139–140
- Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), 5
- Assumption, 20
- Assurance of learning, 26–27
- ATP products, 89
- Background knowledge, 24
- Baconian empirical method, 10
- Baconian Empirical Probing Method, 51
- Baconian method of critical analysis, 49–50
- Balancing feedback loop, 150
- Balancing mechanisms, 151
- Bandwagon appeal, 201
- Behavior, 211–213
  - systems, 10–11
- Behaviorism, 143–144
- Beliefs, 126, 211, 213
  - critical thinking model, 134–137
  - critical thinking systematically questions our presumed thinking and, 134–145
  - fallibility of, 211
  - negative beliefs, 126
  - neutral beliefs, 126
  - OSA and assumptions of cosmic space explorations, 139
  - positive beliefs, 126
  - sustainability development and related ethical concerns of OSA, 139–140
  - systems, 120
- Bias, 20
- Black Swan events, 152
  - knowledge amid, 195–197
- Bloom’s higher-order critical thinking skills, 24
- Bloom’s taxonomy of critical thinking, 21
- “Boiled frog” syndrome, 178

- Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE), 46
- Break vicious zero-sum game cycle, 177–179
- Brundtland Report, The, 139–140
- Budget Omnibus Act (1993), 184–185
- Business, 5, 211, 213
  - belief systems in, 128–129
  - beliefs at Zingerman’s Delicatessen, 126–127
  - critical thinking and business ethics, 28, 77, 79
  - industry organizations, 56
  - knowledge, 15
  - structure of belief systems in, 119–120
- Careful goal-directed thinking, 69
- Cartesian doubting method, 10
- Cartesian dualism and critical thinking, 193
- Cartesian methodic doubt, 47–48
  - applying, 50
- Cartesian philosophy of doubt, 47–48
- Cartesian systematic doubt as critical thinking, 51–52
- Cartesian theory
  - on fallibility of human knowledge, 189–192
  - of methodical doubt, 187–188
- Cartesianism, 189, 192
- Cash flow from operations (CFO), 46
- Center for Critical Thinking, 1
- Certificate of deposit (CD), 150
- Chaos theory, 31–34, 148
- Circular reasoning, 201
- Citigroup (company), 3
- Civilization, 184
- Classical dilemmas, 163
- Climate change, 28
- Cognitive cultures, known problems and unknown problems of our, 209
- Cognitive mechanisms, known challenges and unknown challenges of our, 208
- Cognitive skills, 55–56
- Cognitive theorists, 144
- Cognitive unconscious, 36
- Common resource, 174–176
- Company’s strategy, 104
- Compensating feedback mechanisms, 156
- Complex adapting system (CAS), 37
- Complex consciousness, critical thinking as, 33–37
- Complexity, 34
  - as resource for critical thinking, exploring, 30–39
  - theory, 148
- Consciousness, 34–35
- Contemporary cognitive science, 35
- Contemporary philosophy, 188–189
- Copernican Revolution, 189
- Corporate capitalism, 131–132
- Corporate ethics, 117–118
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 63
- Cosmic space explorations, OSA and assumptions of, 139
- Counteract belief systems, ecofeminist mandates to, 133–134
- Countrywide (company), 161
- COVID-19 pandemic, 29
- Cray Supercomputer Company, 162–163
- Creativity, 70–71
  - creative-thinking skills, 70
  - expertise, 70
  - motivation, 70
- Credit default swaps (CDS), 161
- Credit Suisse (company), 3
- Critical analysis, Baconian method of, 49–50
- Critical constants, 15
- Critical theory, 16
- Critical thinkers, 14, 24–25
  - skills of good, 22
- Critical thinking, 1–2, 4–6, 8, 10, 14, 16–17, 20, 34, 55, 188
  - advanced principles of critical thinking, 25

- as aesthetically rational design thinking, 91–92
- agenda for critical thinking investigation, 19
- to analyze belief systems, 134
- animal welfare and environmental ethics, 29–30
- applied to HRM, 140
- applying critical thinking concerns of Habermas and others to global efficiency, stability, and justice, 61–62
- applying definitions of critical thinking to organizational inputs, processes, and outcomes, 57–60
- applying definitions of Edward Glaser, 64–68
- approaches to teaching, 7–8
- behavioral component, 14
- beliefs, behavior, business, 211–213
- brief history of, 41
- building strengths and ignoring weaknesses, 99–103
- and business ethics, 28
- in business ethics, 77–79
- Cartesian dualism and, 193
- Cartesian systematic doubt as, 51–52
- Cartesian theory on fallibility of human knowledge, 189–192
- challenge of, 17–18
- changing way, 103–106
- characteristics and process of, 52–56
- as complex consciousness, self-organization, and emergence, 33–37
- core of, 69
- corporate fraudulent thinking, 2–3
- countering structured layers of our thinking and reasoning, 21
- critical need for, 2
- critical thinking-based education, 108
- current problems in management education, 26–27
- defensive routines as lack of, 89–91
- designing models of critical thinking based on history, 43–44
- designing models of critical thinking based on history from renaissance period to current times, 48
- desirable principles of, 25
- difference between thinking and, 189
- domain of, 21–22
- as ecofeminism to counter male dominance, 29
- in education, 75–76
- epistemological assumptions of thinking and reasoning, 137
- epistemological incapacities for understanding and taming market uncertainties, 200–201
- examining structured layers of thinking and reasoning, 18–30
- excessive focus, 204, 206–207
- exploring complexity theory as resource for critical thinking, 30–39
- fallibility and falsifiability of our known ignorance and unknown ignorance, 207
- fallibility and falsifiability of our known knowledge and unknown knowledge, 206
- fallibility of beliefs, 210–211, 213
- foundations for thinking and, 79–80
- fourfold typology of critical thinking domains, 113–115
- good set of working principles for, 17
- Habermas and, 56–60
- higher-order cognitive skills, creativity, and, 70–71
- as higher-order thinking, 22–24
- history and categorization as vulnerability, 203

- immutable and frozen
  - conceptualizations, 12
- input, process, and output skills, 63
- intellectual component, 14
- Kahneman and Tversky on
  - fallibility of human knowledge, 199
- Karl Popper's theory of fallibility and falsifiability of Knowledge, 194–195
- knowledge amid black swan events, 195–197
- known challenges and unknown challenges of cognitive mechanisms, 208
- known problems and unknown problems of cognitive cultures, 209
- lack of critical thinking in transportation management, 81–82
- major laws of systems thinking, 152–167
- managerial implications, 37–39
- market turbulence, luck, and serendipity, 202
- method, 42, 93, 109, 134, 137
- models, 10
- moral relativism, 82
- norms for, 63–70
- organizational assumptions of our thinking and reasoning, 138
- positive and normative science, 95
- power of structured belief systems, 126–134
- predicts high critical thinking, 76–77
- principles of, 24–25
- problem of critical thinking and global unsustainability, 27–28
- process of critical thinking, 137–138
- questioning and challenging status quo, 94–95
- randomness, 197
- rationale, 8–9
- reflective thinking, 93–94
- representative management thinkers and, 84–92
- rules vs. principle, 83–84
- scope of critical thinking as problem solving, 26
- sense of world, 93
- skills, 18, 25, 75
- skills of good critical thinker, 22
- spiritual intelligence, 95–99
- structure, 9–12
- structure of belief systems in
  - business, 119–120
  - students not trained, 6–7
- synthesizing approaches to, 109–115
- systematically questions, 134–145
- theory, 56
- toward working definition of, 16–17
- types of critique and critical thinking prescriptions, 71–74
- valuing knowledge resources
  - hierarchically, 106–109
  - viewed etymologically, 14–16
- Criticism, 191
- Critique and critical thinking
  - prescriptions, types of, 71–74
- Critique of authority, 71–74
- Critique of knowledge, 71–74
- Critique of rhetoric, 71–74
- Critique of tradition, 71–74
- Cultural capital, 178
- Deceiving Demon, 50
- Defensive reasoning, 88
- Defensive routines as lack of critical thinking, 89–91
- Defensive Routines theory, 88
- Deming, William Edwards (guru of business management), 84–87
- Descartes's laws of motion, 192
- Design thinking, 92
- Designing models of critical thinking
  - based on history, 43–44

- applying Cartesian methodic doubt, 50
- Baconian empirical probing method, 51
- Baconian method of critical analysis, 49–50
- Cartesian methodic doubt, 47–48
- from renaissance period to current times, 48
- socratic questioning technique, 43
- Deterministic psychology theorists, 144
- Dissipative structures, 32–33
- Dividend payments via Debt, 46–47
- Dividend payout, 46
- “Double-loop” learning, 87–88
- Ecofeminism to counter male dominance, critical thinking as, 29
- Ecofeminist mandates to counteract belief systems, 133–134
- Education, 109–113
  - critical thinking in, 75–76
- Educators, 8
- Electronic products, 92
- Emancipatory cognitive interest (ECI), 61–62
- Emergence, critical thinking as, 33–37
- Emotional intelligence (EQ), 95–98
- Environmental ethics, 29–30
- Epistemic rationality, 69
- Epistemological incapacities for understanding and taming market uncertainties, 200–201
- Equivocation, 201
- Ernst & Young (company), 3
- Evaluation, 55–56
- Everyday low price (EDLP), 176
- Evolution process, 33
- Fallibilism, 187–188
- Fallibility
  - of belief systems, 210–211, 213
  - Cartesian theory on fallibility of human knowledge, 189–192
  - Kahneman and Tversky on fallibility of human knowledge, 199
  - Karl Popper’s Theory of fallibility of knowledge, 194–195
  - of known ignorance and unknown ignorance, 207
  - of known knowledge and unknown knowledge, 206
- False analogies, 201
- False either/or argument, 201
- Falsifiability
  - Karl Popper’s Theory of falsifiability of knowledge, 194–195
  - of known ignorance and unknown ignorance, 207
  - of known knowledge and unknown knowledge, 206
- Fannie May (company), 161
- Faulty cause and effect, 201
- Feedback loop, 129
- Feedback process, 149
  - reinforcing and balancing, 149–151
- Financial byproducts, 161
- Financial institutions, 46–47
- Financial numbers game, 3
- Financial shenanigans, 3
- First Boston (company), 3
- First-order thinking, 94
- Fixes, 172–174
  - continuing series of fixes to stubborn problem, 172–174
- Foundation for Critical Thinking, The, 1
- Fourfold typology of critical thinking domains, 113–115
- Freddie Mac (company), 161
- Free enterprise capitalist system (FECS), 148
  - applying systems laws to explain, 166–167
- Free-market ideology, 131–132

- General Motors, 82
- Genetic Manipulation methods, 139–140
- Global unsustainability, problem of critical thinking and, 27–28
- Gödel's theorem, 194, 197
- Growth, 181–182
- Growth, limits to, 168–170
- Habermas
and Critical Thinking, 56–60
others to global efficiency, stability, and justice, applying critical thinking concerns of, 61–62
- Hasty generalization, 201
- Herzberg's motivation-hygiene theory, 141
- Higher-order cognitive skill, 56, 70
- Higher-order thinking, critical thinking as, 22–24
- History, 197
- Homo Sapiens Foundation, 139
- Homophobia, 29
- Human beliefs, 128
- Human consciousness, 34
- Human dignity
potential for realizing human dignity within, 144–145
in search of human dignity development, 1190
- Human knowledge
Cartesian theory on fallibility of, 189–192
Kahneman and Tversky on fallibility of, 199
- Human Resource Management (HRM) critical thinking applied to, 140 current HRM aspirations and developments, 140–143 potential for realizing human dignity within us, 144–145
in search of human dignity development, 143–144
- Human resource planning, 141
- Humanistic person-centered psychology, 143–144
- Humanistic projective psychology, 143–144
- Humans, 26, 213
- IBM, 82
- Industrial Age, 81
- Information processing for critical thinking, 23
- Information technology (IT), 101
- Infusion approach, 8
- Integrity, 78–7940
- Interpretation, 55–56
- Interrelationships, 148
- JP Morgan (company), 3
- Just-in-time (JIT), 169
- Karl Popper's theory of fallibility and falsifiability of Knowledge, 194–195
- Knowledge, 32, 56, 101–102, 188–189
knowledge-generating process, 63
resources, 106–109
- Known challenges of our cognitive mechanisms, 208
- Known knowledge, fallibility and falsifiability of our, 206
- Known problems of our cognitive cultures, 209
- KPMG (company), 3
- Learning
assurance of, 26–27
process, 75
- Life, 2
- Limitless production, distribution, and consumption (LPDC), 19
- Logic, 22
- Lucifer effect, 82
- Male dominance, critical thinking as ecofeminism to counter, 29
- Management education, current problems in, 26–27

- Management theory, 78
 Market turbulence, 202
 Market uncertainties, epistemological incapacities for understanding and taming, 200–201
 Mars Society, The, 139
 Marsh & McLennan (company), 3
 Masculine speech, 178
 Mathematics, 22
 Mental intelligence, 95–98
 Merrill Lynch (company), 3
 Mixed approach, 8–9
 Modern management systems, 212
 Modern philosophy, 188–189
 Moral relativism, 82
 Morgan Stanley (company), 3
 Multibillionaire entrepreneurs, 139
Mutatis mutandis, 8–9, 166–167
 Mutually exclusive nor collectively exhaustive (MECE), 71, 136

 Nature, 37–38
 Net nonperforming assets (NPAs), 46–47
 New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), 3, 179
 Nonlinear dynamics, 32
 Normative science, 95

 Objective truth, 213
 Organizational assumptions of our thinking and reasoning, 138
 Organizational learning, Chris Argyris on Problems, 87–88
 Outer-Space Adventures (OSA) and assumptions of cosmic space explorations, 139 sustainability development and related ethical concerns of, 139–140

 Para-normal phenomena, 6
 Partner's needs, 176
 Physical intelligence (PQ), 95–98
 Positive science, 95

 Postmodernist revolution, 211
 Power of our structured belief systems, 126–134
 Prejudice, 20
 Presumed market-related belief systems, 130–133
 Presumption, 20
 Presupposition, 20
 Prevailing system of management, 15
 Problem solving, 23
 scope of critical thinking as, 26
 Problematic “dilemmas”, 163
 Psychology, 143
 Pygmalion effect, 151

 Racism, 29
 Rational design thinking, critical thinking as aesthetically, 91–92
 Reasoning, examining structured layers of thinking and, 18–30
 Reductive reasoning, 201
 Reflective thinking, 93–94
 Reinforcing feedback loop, 149–150 processes, 151
 Reinforcing loops, 150
 Renaissance period to current times, designing models of critical thinking based on history from, 48
 Representative management thinkers and critical thinking, 84–92
 Chris Argyris on problems organizational learning, 87–88 critical thinking as aesthetically rational design thinking, 91–92
 defensive routines as lack of critical thinking, 89–91
 William Edwards Deming, 84–87
 Return on equity (ROE), 173
 Return on invested capital (ROIC), 173

- Return on investment (ROI), 173
- Return on sales (ROS), 173
- Salomon Smith Barney (company), 3
- Science books, 7
- Second-order thinking, 94
- Self-organization, critical thinking as, 33–37
- Serendipity, 202
- Short-term gains, 184–185
- Single-loop learning, 87–88
- Skills, 102
- Sluggish system, 179–181
- Socratic method, 42
  - to questioning, 42
- Socratic questioning method, 10, 42, 43–44
  - applying socratic questioning methods, 46–47
  - strategies for using socratic questioning, 42–43
- Speciesism, 29
- Specific, measurable, ambitious, realistic, and time-bound goal (SMART goal), 77
- Spiritual intelligence (SQ), 95, 98–99
- Strength, 102
- Structured belief systems
  - belief systems in business, 128–129
  - beliefs, 127
  - business beliefs at Zingerman’s Delicatessen, 126–127
  - ecofeminist mandates to counteract belief systems, 133–134
  - power of, 126–134
  - presumed market-related belief systems, 130–133
  - symbolic interactionism, 129
- Subjects, objects, properties, and events (SOPE), 148
- Supposition, 20
- Sustainability development (SD), 139
  - and related ethical concerns of OSA, 139–140
- Symbolic interactionism, 129
- Symbolism, 198
- Symptomatic solution, beware of, 170–172
- Synergism, 32
- Systems, 33
- Systems laws to explain FECS, applying, 166–167
- Systems thinking (see also Critical thinking), 11, 14, 148–149, 153, 155
  - applying systems laws, 166–167
  - archetypes of, 167–185
  - behavior, 155
  - business functions, 164–166
  - cause and effect, 160–161
  - classical dilemmas, 163
  - compensating feedback mechanism, 159
  - feedback mechanism, 157–158
  - laws, 152
  - major laws, 152–167
  - problems from yesterday’s solutions, 152
  - reinforcing and balancing feedback processes, 149–151
  - short-term strategies, 156–157
  - small changes, 162–163
- Talents, 101
- Technology, 115
- Thinking, difference between critical thinking and, 189
- Thinking–belief–behavior–impact loops, 118
- Thinking–reasoning–belief systems, 120
- Tim’s locked-in strategy, 89–90
- Total quality management (TQM), 15, 84
- Tragedy of commons, 174–176
- Transformations, 104, 143
- Transnational corporations (TNCs), 128
- Transportation management, lack of critical thinking in, 81–82
- United Auto Workers (UAW), 179

- United States, 1
  - healthcare industry, 179
  - United States–Al-Qaeda confrontation, 183
- University of New Mexico (UNM), 83
- Unknown challenges of our cognitive mechanisms, 208
- Unknown knowledge, fallibility and falsifiability of our, 206
- Unknown problems of our cognitive cultures, 209
- Validity testing of critical thinking, 78
- Volitional psychology theorists, 144
- Vulnerability, history and categorization as, 203
- Western business, 213
- Zero-sum game cycle, 177–179