

INDEX

- Ability to hurt others,
29–30
- Abuser, 25–26
- Academic achievement and social pressure, 45
- Acting out, 36–37
- Aggression, 63–64
- Alter ego, 64–66
- Anger, 39
- Anxiety, 36–37
- Arrogance, 57
- Attention, 53–54
- Balanced narcissism, 54–55
- Body shaming, 20
- Bureaucratic humiliation, 18–19
- Compassion, 78–80
- Compensation, 36–37
- Compound humiliation, 75
- Confusion, 13–15
- Continual humiliations,
41–43
- Defence mechanisms,
35–38, 47–48
self-esteem, 35–37
- Degradation, 9–13
- Depression or anxiety, 4
- Disempowerment, 63–64
- Displacement, 36–37
- Dissociation, 36–37
- Ego, 35–37
- Elderly populations,
11–12
- Embarrassment, 3–4
- Emotional restraint, 82
- Empathy, 57, 76–77
- Emptiness feelings, 57
- Entitlement, 58
- Exclusion, 20–21
- Exhibitionism, 58
- Exploitation of others, 57
- Extremist groups, 69–70
- Extrovert narcissist,
58–59
- Feeling of injustice, 17–19
- Films and photographs,
4–5
- Future humiliations, fear of, 19–20
- Genetics and narcissism,
52–53
- Grandiosity, 58

- Harassment, 27–29
- Healthy narcissism, 55–56
- Helplessness, 13–15
- Human dignity, 7–8, 78–80
- Humiliation
 - activation for, 48–50
 - aspects, 8–9
 - on behalf of others, 71
 - definitions, 7–8
 - elements of, 8, 48
 - features of invalidation
 - in, 48–49
 - and memory, 32–33
 - revisiting cases of, 82–106
 - shame and, 8
 - to shame transformation, 25
 - situational features of, 48, 49
- Idealization and devaluation, 57
- Intellectualization, 36–37
- Interpersonal disputes, 77–78
- Islamic State (IS), 64–66, 68
- Mental health, 26
- Mental illness, 63–70
- #MeToo campaign, 27–29
- Narcissism, 26, 50–51
 - overt vs. covert, 58–61
 - symptoms
 - affective symptoms, 56–57
 - grandiosity symptoms, 58
 - interpersonal symptoms, 57
 - symptoms and traits of, 51–56
- Narcissistic personality disorder, 66–67
- Neutralizing humiliations, 77–78
 - toolbox for, 108–112
- Overt vs. covert narcissism, 58–61
- Pathological narcissism, 56, 58
- Personality, 33–34
 - Freud’s interacting dimensions of, 33
 - trait, 50–51
- Physical assault, 15–16
- Posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 32–33
- Power, 30–31
- Power balance, 31, 78–80
- Powerlessness, 13–15
- Prestige, success, and brilliance, preoccupation, 58
- Projection, 36–37
- Proxy humiliation, 31

- Psychic decline, 37–38
 Psychological defence mechanisms, 21
 Psychopathology, 4
 Public exposure, 19–20
 and individual values, 21–23
 Public shaming, 3–4

 Rank of status, 31–32
 Rationalization, 36–37
 Reaction formation, 36–37
 Reactions to humiliation, 42 elements in concept, 48 mental illness, violence and terrorism, 63–70
 narcissism. See Narcissism self-esteem and self-image psychological understanding of, 47–48
 ruining, 45–47
 shame and humiliation, 41–45
 vulnerability and entitlement, 61–63, 70
 Regression, 36–37
 Religious groups, 69–70
 Repression, 36–37
 Roasting, 31–32
 Rumours and accusations, 44

 Sado-masochism, 4–5
 Sanderson's spectrum of family of shame emotions (adapted), 9

 Schizophrenic disorder, 66–67
 Self-blame, 28–29
 Self-centred character, 50–51
 Self-defence, 16–17
 Self-esteem, 13, 16–17, 21, 54–55
 defence mechanisms, 35–37
 effect, 23–24
 healthy, 38–40
 labile feelings of, 56 psychological understanding, 47–48
 ruining, 45–47
 shame and humiliation, 24–26
 Self-evaluation, 55–56
 Self-identity, 13
 Self-image, 39–40
 psychological understanding, 47–48
 ruining, 45–47
 values, and self-esteem, 34–35
 Self-loving, 50–51
 Self- or other-directed violence, 4
 Self-regard, 55–56
 Sense of self and injustice, 15–16
 Shame, 57
 and humiliation, 8, 24–26, 41–45
 Shame-humiliation pairing, 3–4
 'Slut-shaming', 10

- 'Social attractiveness', 5–6
- Social media, 69
- Social or economic humiliation, 107
- Social pressure, 45
- Social withdrawal, 21
- So You've Been Publicly Shamed?*, 26
- Status degradation ceremonies, 5–6
- Status rank, 78–80
- Sublimation, 36–37
- Substance abuse disorders, 34
- Suicide, 4, 37–38
- 'Swot' blocks, 20–21
- Sympathy, 76
- Terrorism, 63–70
- Unwanted sexual harassment, 27–28
- Violation/assault, 15–17
- Violence, 16–17, 63–70
 - and terrorism, 70
- Vulnerability
 - and entitlement, 70
 - to humiliation, 61–63