

INDEX

- Act of Tolerance, 54
American Resting Place, The (Yalom), 8–9
Anglican, 27
 Anglican/English churchyard model, 88–89
 ‘King’s Chapel’, 46–47
Anglican Book of Common Pray (1662), 137
Apotropaic marks, 68
Archaeologists, 1–2
‘Archaeology of American Cemeteries and Gravestones’, The (Baugher and Veit), 16–17
Avalon Peninsula, 136
Baltimore City, 87–88
‘Brick Chapel’, 87–88
Bristol and London Company, 43
British burial traditions, 19–20 protestant reformation effects on, 37–43
British colonial period, 32–33
British gravestone in North America, 59–60
British in seventeenth century
 Newfoundland, 108–112
British Isles, 4–5, 26–27, 32–33
British North America
 17th century burial landscapes in, 77–78 in early seventeenth century, 43–50 frequency analysis for comparison between regions, 100 frequency analysis of seventeenth century settlements, 100 results of analysis, 99–105 settlement organization in 17th century, 80–95

- seventeenth to eighteenth century British settlements, 84–85
 statistical analysis of burial ground organization, 95–99
 British settlers, 26–27
 British-founded settlements, 26–27
 ‘Britishness’ in colonial settlements, 19–21
 Burial Act (1880), 44–45
 Burial grounds, 3–4, 8–9, 11–14, 24, 53, 79–80
 statistical analysis of burial ground organization, 95–99
 Burial(s), 1–2
 burial/burying ground, 26
 cemetaries, 8–9, 24–26
 churchyard/graveyard, 24 interments, 3 landscapes, 7–11, 22–24
 rites in Britain preceding protestant reformation, 31–37 site at Ferryland, 6–7 space organization, 42–43 terminology, 22–27
 Cadaver tombs, 35–36
 Carved gravestones, 59–60
 Carvers, 14–15
 Carvings, 14–15
 Catholic epitaphs, 41–42
 Catholicism, 132
 Catholics, 129–130
 Cemeteries, 19–20, 25–26
 garden, 25–26
 Chantry chapels, 33–34
 Chapel Field cemetery, 58–59
 ‘Chapell’, 92–93
 Christian symbols, 71
 Churchyard, 24–25, 54
 Cláirseach, 70
 ‘Coffin-less burial’, 58–59
 Coffins, 51–52, 55–56 styles and accessibility, 57–58
 Colonial
 burial grounds, 32–33
 gravestone carvers, 14–15
 Colonialism, 3–4
 ‘Colony of Avalon’, 87
 British and Irish in seventeenth century Newfoundland, 108–112 evidence of deaths at Ferryland, 112–114
 Guilford, Connecticut, 122–127
 seventeenth century burials at Ferryland, 114–122 Commemoration, 33–34
 Common Burying Ground, 91–92
 Communal coffin, 55–56
 ‘Communion tables’, 39–40

- Conception Bay South, 136–137
 Connecticut, 88–90,
 102–103
 Copp's Hill Burying Ground, 46–47, 91
 Copper pins, 55
 'Counterreformation ideology', 16–17
 Cremation, 36–37
 Cupids, 43, 93–95

 Daisy wheel. See Hexfoil
 Death, 1–2, 33–34
 evidence at Ferryland, 112–114
 head, 66–67
 'Dig a Grave both Wide and Deep' report,
 13–14
 Diggers, 44–45
 'Dissolution of the Monasteries', 38
 Doctrine of calvinism,
 38–39

 East Coast
 17th-century burial practices and landscapes on, 51 gravestones in seventeenth-century
 Atlantic world,
 59–65
 seventeenth-century
 gravestone
 iconography, 65–76
 below surface, 54–59

 Ebola, 130–131
 Embalming, 31–32, 36–37
 English churchyard model,
 98
 Enthusiasts, 44–45
 European model of 'grave
 recycling', 131
 Excavations, 56–59
 at Ferryland, 107–108, 121
 at Foxtrap, 136–137

 Family plots, 86–87
 Ferryland, 5–6, 43, 60–61, 109–111
 death evidence at, 112–114
 excavations at, 107–108, 121
 gravestones, 62–63, 65
 pool, 117
 seventeenth century
 burials at, 114–122
 to St. John's and cupids,
 110
 Folk traditions, 95
 Foxtrap, excavations at,
 136–137

 Google Earth Pro, 21–22,
 97–99
 Granary Burying Ground,
 91
 Grave(s), 116, 135–136
 burial ground, 92–93
 European model of grave
 recycling, 131
 markers, 14–18
 shafts, 116

- Gravestone(s), 14–15, 40, 75–76
 in seventeenth-century Atlantic world, 59–65 of William Paddy, 64
 ‘Gravestones of Early New England and the Men who Made Them’ (Forbes), 14
- Graveyard, 24–26
 theory, 19–20
- Great Awakening, 16–17
- Great Migration (1630s), 90–91
- Ground penetrating radar (GPR), 116, 119–120
- Ground-truthing, 58–59
- Guilford, Connecticut, 122–127
- Guilford Green, 124–126
- Hexafoil. See Hexfoil
- Hexagonal coffins, 57–58
- Hexfoil, 68–74
- Iceberg, 6–7
- Iconoclasm, 40–41
- Iconography, 65–76
- Inscribed gravestones, 59–60
- Irish
 settlers, 26–27
 in seventeenth century
 Newfoundland, 108–112
- Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, 91
- Jamestown, 43, 81–86
 gravestones, 65
 ledger, 63–64
- John Coney stone, 73–74
- John Guy’s Cupids
 Plantation, 93–94
- JR102C individual, 56–57
- King’s Chapel Burying Ground, 45–46
- Landscape, 1–2, 7–8
 archaeology theory, 53
- Lydia Broun stone, 73–74
- ‘Marking grave’, 8–9
- Massachusetts Bay Company, 43–45, 90–93, 102
- ‘Meeting House Yard’, 88–89
- Memento mori* motifs, 66–67
- Menunkatucket, 123
- Microsoft Excel, 21–22
- Monastic communities, 38
- Monumental brasses, 41–42
- Monuments, 35
- Morbid space, 7–8
- Muggletonians, 44–45
- Nails, 57–58
- New England gravestone art, 14
- Newfoundland Company, 5, 20, 43, 51–52, 60–61
- Parish coffin, 55–56

- 'Percy' individual, 56–57
- 'Pilgrims', 44–45
- Plymouth Colony, 90–91
- Plymouth plantation, 44–45
- Poole Plantation, 113–114
- Popham Colony, 92–93
- Portable X-ray fluorescence (pXRF), 61–62
- Pre-Reformation
 - monuments and gravestones, 35
- Preiconography
 - gravestones, 64–65
- Protective marks in mortuary context, 68–76
- Protestant, 27
- Protestant reformation, 129
 - on British burial tradition, 37–43
 - British North America in early seventeenth century, 43–50
 - burial rites in Britain preceding protestant reformation, 31–37
 - effects, 31–32
- Protestantism, 19–20, 49, 78–79
- Purgatory concept, 33–34, 38–39
- Puritanism, 16–17, 45–48
- Puritans, 15–16, 27, 38–39, 42, 44–45, 129–130
 - gravestones, 63–64
- Quaker(s), 15–16, 26, 44–45
 - gravestones, 63–64
- Reform Act (1832), 54
- Rhode Island, 90
- Romano–British
 - gravestones, 69
- Rooms Provincial Museum of Newfoundland and Labrador, 70
- Round-end graves, 58–59
- Rural cemetery, 25–26
- Rural garden cemetery, 25–26
- Seekers, 44–45
- Settlement
 - organization in 17th century, 80–95
 - planning, 47–48
- Seventeenth century
 - burials at Ferryland, 114–122
 - settlers, 133
- Shrouds, 55
- 'Six-feet-under' phrase, 58–59
- Six-sided cross, 69
- Sleeping chamber (koimeterion), 25–26
- Statistical analysis, 10, 77–78
 - of burial ground organization, 95–99
- Statistical Package for the Social Sciences (SPSS), 21–22

- Thomas Smith stone, 73–74
‘Thunder mark’, 69–70
Trenches, 116–121
Vandalism theory, 62–63
Virginia Company, 20–21,
43–44
‘Virginia’, 43, 81–86
Whorl or pinwheel design,
68
Winged skull. See
Death—head
Witch hex. See Hexfoil
Wound shroud, 55
Yorktown, 81–87