

Index

- Accelerators and Business Membership Organizations (ABMO), 29–30
- Acute respiratory syndrome, 8
- Adaptation/adjustment difficulty, 193–194
- Ad hoc natural disasters context, 168
- Africa
  - challenges of COVID-19 and entrepreneurship in, 12–13
  - COVID-19 pandemic in, 8
  - entrepreneurship in, 8
  - post-COVID-19 entrepreneurial resilience in, 170–171
- African Union (AU), 15
- Agile marketing organizations, 167
- Aging population, 177
- Agricultural development, hindrances to, 158–159
- Agripreneur, 152
- Albinitio*, 61
- Alcohol-based hand rub (ABHR), 118
- Amazon, 3
- American Marketing Association's, 172
- Annan v Bin*, 154
- Artificial Intelligence (AI), 46
- Automation, 46

- Bank of America, 40–41
- Behavioural intention of social media, 67
- Brand awareness, 74–76
  - customers choice, 80–81
  - empirical evidence linking brand awareness to customer choice, 77–79
  - levels, 76–77
  - managerial implication, 83
  - merchandising rely heavily on, 74–75
- Nigerian customers' choices, 81–82
- and retention influence customer, 74
- sustainable model for brand awareness and customers choice, 79
- theoretical implication, 83
- Brands, 73–74
  - recall, 75
  - recognition, 75
- Business Development Service Providers (BDSP), 29–30
- Businesses, 2, 8, 40
  - continuity, 12–13
  - innovation in, 11
  - stability in, 12–13
- Buyers (B), 186

- Capacity-building, 105–106
- Caterpillar, 40–41
- Catholic Bishop's Conference of Nigeria (CBCN), 66
- Citibank, 40–41
- Cohesive model, 74–75
- Commonwealth Health Corporation (CHC), 43
- Community engagement, 107
- Compliance and preventive measures, 185
- Constrained environment, social entrepreneurs challenges in, 32
- Consumer sentiments on COVID-19 crisis, 167
- Containment
  - of COVID-19, 100–101, 107
  - of disease, 88–89

- measures in Nigeria, 95
- of pandemic, 88–89
- Contemporary employment, 14–15
- Continuous quality improvement (CQI), 43
- Cooperating partnership, 15
- Coronavirus (CoV), 2, 8–10, 88, 184
  - capacity-building, 105–106
  - challenges and entrepreneurship in Africa, 12–13
  - dynamics of COVID-19, 91–94
  - executive actions, 94–96
  - fake news and, 57
  - and governance during disaster, 89–91
  - governance of COVID-19 pandemic, 91–107
  - governance process and outcome of COVID-19 medical interventions, 107–113
  - incidence and effect in Nigeria, 27–28
  - institutional and legislative frameworks, 96–101
  - isolation and treatment centres, 105
  - lessons, implications, 113–115
  - medical management measures, 101–107
  - methodology, 91
  - opportunities created by COVID-19 for entrepreneurship in Africa, 13–15
  - opportunities for social entrepreneurship in disguise, 28–30
  - pandemic in Africa, 8
  - phases of COVID-19 pandemic alert and response, 102
  - regional distribution of COVID-19 cases, 113
  - risk communication and community engagement, 107
  - social media and, 57
  - surveillance, 104–105
- Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) Health Protection Regulations 2021', 100
- Corporate bodies, 121
- Corporate brand, 73–74
- COVID-19, 1–2, 4, 144–145, 166, 184
  - advertising, 174
  - in bid to foster customer satisfaction, 41–42
  - channel, 173
  - conceptual framework, 178
  - consequences of COVID-19 induced business down cycles, 171, 174
  - consumer materialism and consumer spiritualism, 174–175
  - consumer sentiments on COVID-19 crisis, 174–178
  - COVID-19-themed StartupWeekend occasion, 4
  - economic challenges and entrepreneurial resilience in emerging economies, 169–171
  - examining the transitory or permanent nature, 175–178
  - fake news dissemination, 60–62
  - future research suggestions, 179–180
  - implications of new marketing paradigm, 178–180
  - knowledge of COVID-19 mode of transmission, 186, 188–189
  - knowledge of COVID-19 preventive measures, 186, 188–189
  - knowledge of COVID-19 symptoms, 186, 188–189
  - limitations of methodology, 180
  - managerial implications, 178–179
  - means of transmission and prevention, 189–191
  - outbreak, 46
  - pandemic, 118, 120–121
  - policy implications, 179 and PPE, 121–122
  - price, 173
  - product, 172–173
  - protocols, 168
  - purpose/cause-related marketing, 172

- Six Sigma efficiency during, 40
- and state of art in marketing, 167–169
- target customers, 173
- and technological trends in twenty-first century, 45–47
- technology context, 168–169
- transmission, 184–185
- Crisis communication, 59–60
  - and social media crisis management, 57–60
- Crowd control, 179–180
- Curfews, 179–180
- Customary tenancy and sustainable
  - post COVID-19 agricultural development in Nigeria, 144
  - categorization, 150–154
  - customary tenure, 146–148
  - determination, 153–154
  - development, 160–162
  - land for grazing, 158
  - under Land Use Act 1978, 155–158
  - methodology, 145
  - nature, 148–154
  - objectives, 145
- Customary tenure, 146–148
  - family/village head, 147–148
  - individual v group ownership, 146–147
- Customer choice, 80–81
  - empirical evidence linking brand awareness to, 77–79
  - Nigerian, 81–82
  - sustainable model for brand awareness and, 79
- Customers, 76
  - connecting with, 3
  - entrepreneurship-based SME on, 2
  - loyalty, 75
  - satisfaction, 41–42
  - value and acquire, 2–3
- Cybercrime, 55–57
- Data management technologies, 46
- Defence Industries Corporation of Nigeria (DICON), 122
- Define-Measure-Analyse-Design-Verify (DMADV), 40–41
- Define-Measure-Analyse-Improve and Control (DMAIC), 40–41
- Design-thinking approach, 43
- ‘Despite respondents’ awareness, 193, 197
- Development plan, 15
- Digital business networks, 2
- Digitalization, 30
- Disaster governance, 90–91
- Disruption of supply chain, 13
- Disruptive technology, 40, 43–45
- Down cycles, 167
- Dynamics of COVID-19, 91–94
- Earthquakes, 168
- Ebola virus disease, 184, 197
- Economic authenticity, 3
- Economic contraction, 177
- Economic impact of coronavirus, 170
- Economic Sustainability Committee (ESC), 96
- Electricity, 168
- Electronic marketing activities, 74–75
- Emergency response operations centre (EOC), 59–60
- Emerging economies
  - COVID-19, 169–170
  - economic challenges and entrepreneurial resilience in, 169–171
  - post-COVID-19 entrepreneurial resilience in Africa, 170–171
- Employment, contemporary, 14–15
- End SARS* protest, 55–57
- End-Sars* protest in Nigeria, 58–59
  - social media communication during End-SARS protest among Nigerian Youths, 62–66
  - woman protesting, 62–66
- English law, 144, 147
- Entrepreneurial resilience, 167
- Entrepreneurs, 11

- Entrepreneurship, 8, 10–11
   in Africa, 8 challenges, 129–131 challenges of COVID-19 and entrepreneurship in Africa, 12–13
   contemporary employment, 14–15
   cooperating partnership, 15
   disruption of supply chain, 13
   entrepreneurship-based SME strategies, 1–4
   jobs at risk, 13
   new business model approach, 14
   in Nigeria, 124
   and Nigeria's manufacturing industry, 126–128
   opportunities created by COVID-19 for entrepreneurship in Africa, 13–15
   resilience, 10
   stability in business, 12–13
   theory, 34
- Erosion, 168
- Ethnocentrism, 80–81
- European Union (EU), 9–10
- Event-related potentials (ERPs), 74–75
- Executive actions, 94–96
- Face mask, 176, 191
   knowledge-practice gaps in, 194
- Facebook, 54–55, 81–82
- Fake news communication, 61
- Familiarization process, 186
- Federal Airport Authority of Nigeria, 100
- Federal Capital Territory (FCT), 94
- Federal Ministry of Health, 59–60
- Federal Road Safety Corps, 100
- Financial services, 26–27
- Firms, 166
- Foreign direct investment (FDI), 133
- Freelancing, 14–15
- Funding entrepreneurship, availability of linkages between industry and research institutions in,
   131–132
- Gender diversity, 177
- General Electric (GE), 40–41
- General explanatory models for preventive inactions,
   191–194
   adaptation/adjustment difficulty, 193–194
   leadership exemplar deficit,
   192–193
   ‘poor stakeholders’ mentality, 193
   public distrust in government, 192 scarcity of proximate coronavirus cases, 191–192
- GeneXpert, 101–102
- Global pandemics, 168
- Google, 3
   Google Meet, 54
   Google+, 54
- Governance, 90
   coronavirus and governance during disaster, 89–91
   of COVID-19 pandemic, 91–107
   process and outcome of COVID-19
     medical interventions,
     107–113
- Government educational institutions,
   118
- Government relations, 97
- Government salvage programmes, 2
- Government-owned brand, 74
- Grazing, land for, 158
- Great Depression, 9–10
- Hand washing, 193
- Health communication, 196
- Health insurance, 168
- Healthcare services, Six Sigma application in, 42–43
- High-rapid networks, 45–46
- Honeywell, 40–41
- Human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), 184
- Hypothesis testing model, 79
- Ife Overlords v Modakekes*, 151
- Improvement, 40

- In-depth exploration of social entrepreneurs, 24–25
- Incubator and Enterprise Support Organizations (ESP), 29–30
- Individual v group ownership, 146–147
- Infection, prevention and control (IPC), 97
- Infection cases, age characteristics of, 107
- Infectious diseases, 184
- Information society, 54
- Innovation
  - in business, 11
  - innovation of robotic technology, 46–47
  - SMEs, 11–12
  - in technology, 46
- Instagram, 54–55, 81–82
- Institutional frameworks of COVID-19 pandemic, 96–97
- Intensive care units (ICU), 105
- Interactive structural models, 83
- International Labour Organisation, 170
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 9–10
- Internet of things technologies (IoT technologies), 45–46
- Interventions
  - medical, 101
  - non-medical, 96
- ISO 9000 in manufacturing sector, 40
- Jobs at risk, 13
- JP Morgan, 40–41
- Kauffman Foundation, 4
- Knowledge-praxis gaps, 191–196
  - general explanatory models for preventive inactions, 191–194
  - knowledge-practice gaps in face mask, 194
  - knowledge-practice gaps to social distancing practice, 194–196
  - specific prevention-control-related cause of inactions, 194–196
- Kola Tenancy, 152–153
- Kola Tenancy Act, 153
- Land for grazing, 158
- Land resources, 144–145
- Land Use Act 1978 (LUA 1978), 144, 155, 158
  - entitlement to customary grant, 157–158
  - hindrances to agricultural development, 158–159
  - quantum of land tenant, 157
  - status under, 155–157
- Landslides, 168
- Large-scale social distancing strategy, 23–24
- Lasisi Anor v Tubi & Anor*, 149–150
- Leadership exemplar deficit, 192–193
- Legislative actions of COVID-19 pandemic, 98–101
- Length of tenancy, 150–151
- LinkedIn, 54
- Local brands, 80
- Lockdown, 27, 179–180
- Manufacturing
  - capacity demand for production of PPE, 122–123
  - industry of Nigeria, 124–126
- Market-involved individuals, 185–186
  - findings, 196–197
  - incomplete knowledge of COVID-19 means of transmission and prevention, 189–191
  - knowledge of symptoms, means of transmission, and prevention of COVID-19, 186–189
  - knowledge-praxis gaps, 191–196
  - methods, 185–186
  - results, 186–187, 196
- Medical interventions, 101
  - governance process and outcome of COVID-19, 107–113

- Medical management measures,
101–107
distribution of COVID-19 testing laboratories, 104
laboratory strategies, 103
testing, 101–104
- Mgbelekele Family v Madam Iyayi
Family*, 152–153
- Micro, small and medium enterprises
(MSMEs), 26–27, 30
- Microsoft Teams, 54
- Middle East Respiratory Syndrome
Coronaviruses (MERS-CoV), 89
- Million Cups programme, 4
- Misinformation on social media, 55–57
- Mobile applications software, 169
- Mobile technologies, 45–46
- Modern marketplace, 73–74
- Motorola manufacturing process, 40–41
- Movement restrictions, 166
- National Centre for Disease Control and Management (NCDC),
96–97
guidelines for managing COVID-19
pandemic, 98
- National COVID-19 Pandemic Multi-
Sectoral Response Plan, 101
- National Identity Management
Commission (NIMC), 67
- New business model approach, 14
- Nigeria, 120, 144
challenges of social entrepreneurs in constrained environment, 32
COVID-19 pandemic incidence and effect in Nigeria, 27–28 crisis communication and social media crisis management,
57–60
current state of manufacturing industry of, 124–126
empirical evidence from developed and emerging economies,
31–32
entrepreneurship in, 124
functionality, 56
gap in literature, 57
limitations, 34, 67–68
managerial implications, 33, 67
in Nigeria, 55
opportunities for social entrepreneurship in disguise, 28–30
policy implications, 33–34, 67
rural sub-sector of, 25
SE in, 24–25, 27
social issues, 23–24
social media communication and COVID-19 fake news
dissemination, 60–62 social media communication during
End-SARS protest among Nigerian Youths, 62–66
social media in, 55
theoretical implications, 33
as web-enabled services, 54–55
- Nigeria Association of Resident
Doctors (NARD), 118–119
- Nigeria Centre For Disease Control
(NCDC), 59–60, 118
- Nigeria Immigration Service, 100
- Nigeria National Pandemic Influenza
Preparedness Response Plan
2013, 101
- Nigeria Police Force, 100
- Nigeria Security and Civil Defence
Corps, 100
- Nigerian customers choices, 81–82
- Nigerian economy, 171–172
- Nigerian Healthcare Systems
COVID-19 pandemic and technological trends in twenty-first century, 45–47
disruptive technology, 43–44
gap in literature, 40
limitations, 48
managerial implications, 47
policy implications, 47–48
- Six Sigma, 40–42
- Six Sigma application in healthcare services, 42–43

- Nodes, 54–55
- Non-governmental organizations (NGO), 25
- Non-medical interventions, 96
- Non-pharmaceutical interventions (NPIs), 89–90
- Non-target stimuli, 74–75

- Odunsi v Pereira & Anor*, 146–147
- Omu-Aran market, 185–186
- Online analytics tools, 3
- Online method of shopping, 14–15
- Online payment platforms, 15
- Outcome emphasis, 26–27
- Oxford Poverty and Human Development Initiative (OPHI), 112–113

- Pan American Health Organization (PAHO), 89–90
- Pandemic, 31
- Partnership, cooperating, 15
- Partnership, People, Prosperity, Planet and Peace (Ps' agenda), 15
- Pension, 168
- Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), 46, 118
  - COVID-19 and, 121–122
  - current state of manufacturing industry of Nigeria, 124–126
  - entrepreneurship and Nigeria's manufacturing industry, 126–128
  - entrepreneurship in Nigeria, 124
  - lack of, 119
  - literature review, 121–128
  - manufacturing capacity demand for production of, 122–123
  - methodology, 128
  - strategic importance, 119–120
- Pinterest, 54
- Policy implications, 179
- Poor stakeholders' mentality, 193
- Post-COVID-19 entrepreneurial resilience in Africa, 170–171
- Post-COVID-19, 8

- Presidential Task Force (PTF), 88, 97
  - on COVID-19 outbreak, 59–60
  - pillars of action by, 99
- Prevention-control-related cause of inactions, 194–196
- Price sensitivity, 173
- Products/firm websites, 169
- Programme area focus, 26–27
- Proximate coronavirus cases, scarcity of, 191–192
- Public distrust in government, 192
- Public Health Emergency of International Concern (PHEIC), 184
- Purpose/cause-related marketing, 172

- Quality of goods and services, 41–42
- Quarantine, 8

- Reference groups, 80
- Regular washing of hands, 193
- Regulatory framework, 26–27
- Research and innovation (R&I), 24–25
- Resource mobilization, 97
- Risk communication, 107
- Risk communication and community engagement (RCCE), 97
- Robotic technology, 46–47
- Rules and regulations context, 168

- Salami v Oke*, 158–159
- Sales activities, 74–75
- Sanitizers, 193
- Security, Logistics and Mass Care (SLMC), 97
- Service protocols, 166
- Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome (SARS), 8, 89, 184
- Shell BP v Abedi & Ors*, 150
- Short response period, 58–60
- Six Sigma, 40, 42
  - application in healthcare services, 42–43
- Skype, 54
- Small and medium enterprises (SMEs), 1–2, 8, 126–127, 170

- challenges of COVID-19 and entrepreneurship in Africa, 12–13
- conceptual framework, 9
- coronavirus, 9–10
- development plan, 15
- entrepreneurship, 10–11
- innovation, 11–12
- limitations, 17
- literature review, 9–12
- managerial implications, 16–17
- opportunities created by COVID-19 for entrepreneurship in Africa, 13–15
- policy implications, 17
- theoretical implication, 16
- Snapchat, 54
- Social activities limitation, 8
- Social context, 168
- Social distancing, 8, 179–180, 193–194
  - knowledge-practice gaps to social distancing practice, 194–196
- Social entrepreneur, 23–25
  - challenges in constrained environment, 32
- Social entrepreneurship (SE). See also Entrepreneurship, 24
  - in Nigeria, 25–27
  - opportunities for social entrepreneurship in disguise, 28–30
- Social media, 54
  - communication and COVID-19 fake news dissemination, 60–62
  - crisis communication and social media crisis management, 57–60
  - functionality, 56
  - gap in literature, 57
  - limitations, 67–68
  - managerial implications, 67
  - in Nigeria, 55
  - platforms, 81–82
  - policy implications, 67
  - social media communication during End-SARS protest among Nigerian Youths, 62–66
  - social media/virtual accounts, 169
  - as web-enabled services, 54–55
- Social unity, 23–24
- Socio-economic classes, 177
- Socio-economic systems, 26–27
- Socio-legal research methodology, 145
- Spiritual utility, 175
- Stability in business, 12–13
- State coordination, 97
- Stay-at-home orders, 8
- Strategic development, 26–27
- Strategic partnership in optimizing entrepreneurial opportunities, 132–135
- Supply chain disruption, 13
- Surprise, 58
- Surveillance, 104–105
- Surveillance Response Management and Analysis (SORMAS), 104–105
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 15, 24
- Sustainable model for brand awareness and customers choice, 79
- Sustainable production group, 97
- Target stimuli, 74–75
- Technology, 44
  - innovation in, 46
  - in marketing during COVID-19 crisis, 168–169
- Tenant, 148, 156
  - consideration, 151–152
- Threat, 58
- Tik Tok, 54
- Toshiba, 40–41
- Total lockdowns, 179
- Traders (T), 186
- Traditional sales activities, 74–75
- Triple Helix model, 120–121
- Twitter, 54–55, 81–82
- Two-step approach, 95

- Unemployment in Africa, 13–14
- United Nations (UN), 11–12
- United Nations Economic Commission for Africa, 9–10
- Unpredictable natural disasters, 166

- Value chain analysis, 80
- Virtual reality, 45–46
- Virtual-learning technique, 46

- Water, 168
- Web 2.0, 54–55
- Web-based media platforms, 3
- WhatsApp, 54–55, 81–82
- WHO Phase of pandemic alert for pandemic (H1N1) 2009, 101

- Wireless technologies, 45–46
- thermometer, 46
- Word of mouth (WOM), 77
- Work-at-home, 46
- Work-life balances, 177
- World Economic Forum, 9–10
- World Health Organization (WHO), 9, 58–59, 62, 88, 119–120, 184

- Youtube, 54–55

- Zoom, 54
- Zoonotic virus, 89